Exclusiveness isn't about ownership. It's about having our own unique personal experiences. This new way of seeing life with our priorities allows us to connect with new awareness and live on our terms, regardless. So we created Golf and Country Club, the most luxurious golf resort in Costa Blanca between coastal hills and the Mediterranean Sea. We have prepared the best plots of land to build your dream home. A 330-hectare valley between hills just a few minutes from the beach with a championship golf course rolling through. An eco-friendly development with low housing density which blends with nature. A world apart place to enjoy the beautiful countryside and scenic walk through indigenous flora and orange groves.
