In Malaga, one of the most important cultural cities both in Spain and in Europe by virtue of its 37 museums, its gastronomy is also a major attraction. It has attained widespread acclaim for the variety of the culinary offerings in its benchmark establishments which include Michelin-Star holders at the vanguard of national and international cuisine, while not forgetting those exceptional quality eating houses serving more traditional dishes. On its leisure calendar, Malaga hosts highly important events such as the Holy Week celebrations (among the most popular in Spain), its famous film festival or musical event. Here we have created spaces in your new home where your senses will know no bounds. We have built flexible rooms to develop them, to stimulate them, to enjoy the pleasure of living. Have breakfast in touch with nature, make the most of your leisure time, arrange a dinner with friends, or just let yourself be carried away with your favourite read overlooking the sea
